WELCOME TO EINDHOVEN

Welcome to Eindhoven. It's good to see you!

Dear visitor,

On behalf of the people of Eindhoven, I want to welcome you to our city! Most days, Eindhoven is known as the heart of the Brainport region, where smart high-tech solutions are developed to take on various global challenges. Right now, though, Eindhoven is the bustling epicentre of European women's football.

The UEFA Women's Champions League Final 2023 represents a unique moment in Dutch football history. This marks the first time the event is held in our country. It goes without saying that we are incredibly proud of the honour that has been bestowed on us.

Eindhoven has strong ties to the UEFA Champions League. PSV won the Europa cup I in 1988 and to this day, Eindhoven is the smallest city to ever win this prize. We are still incredibly proud of the generation that managed to achieve this highlight in the history of Dutch football.

Likewise, we are very proud of today's local icons of women's football, such as Danielle van de Donk, Kika van Es and Aniek Nouwen. Every week, they compete in various top European football competitions. They are important ambassadors of our region and of women's football in general.

You have every reason to be just as proud of your own team. They have made it to the finals of this most prestigious tournament and the European club championship is now within reach!

I sincerely hope you will enjoy your stay in our city and the match you came here to see. May the best team win!

Jeroen Dijsselbloem
Mayor of Eindhoven

WHAT TO DO IN EINDHOVEN

Eindhoven is a vibrant city full of energy and we are happy to share it with you. Try searching for the word “innovation” on Google. The first images you will see are light bulbs, which is no coincidence. More than 125 years ago, Philips literally lit up Eindhoven. The company transformed the city into an industrial success story.

Eindhoven is also a perfect example of the typical hospitality that the Dutch province of North Brabant is famous for. In Eindhoven, this hospitality is combined with a modern and industrious city. The city also has a lively craft beer culture. These beverages are served in the many cafés and restaurants that you can find all around Eindhoven. Below is an overview of the FAN hotspots that can be found in Eindhoven during the UEFA Women's Champions League Finale!

Stratumseind

This 225-metre pub street is the longest in the Benelux. It is home to more than forty cafés, many of which are open day and night. Whatever your favourite style of music may be, with so many establishments to choose from, Stratumseind has something for everyone.

Markt

Market Square is the central square in the heart of Eindhoven. This square is home to Eindhoven's large grand cafés with their expansive terraces, where you can enjoy a delicious meal and a cold beverage in the sun. The Market Square is also where you will find the Heuvel Galerie, a shopping centre with a variety of fun stores to browse around in.

Wilhelminaplein

The historical Wilhelminasquare is home to authentic cafés that have lost none of their attraction over the years. This piece of the old Eindhoven has been kept in its original condition. Visit the Wilhelminasquare to enjoy a drink or a meal on the terrace or soak up the unique atmosphere of a typical Dutch café.

PSV STADIUM

The PSV Stadium is the home base of PSV. This beautiful modern stadium is located in Eindhoven's city centre, in the same location where it has always been since the club's foundation in 1913.

The PSV Stadium is generally seen as one of the most beautiful football stadiums in the Netherlands, in part because of how close the stands are to the pitch, the excellent lighting and the available facilities. On match days, the stadium can house up to 35,000 visitors.

When it comes to visiting a football match in the PSV Stadium, there are several security matters to keep in mind, the most relevant of which are listed below:

- The stadium doors will open two hours before the start of the match
- You can have your ticket scanned from your smartphone at the gate. If you purchased tickets for multiple people, everyone must be able to show their ticket on their own phone.
- You can also print out your ticket on a blank sheet of A4 paper. With a printed ticket, you can get into the stadium faster.
- The QR code on your ticket will only grant you access to the stadium once. Once it is scanned, the QR code will no longer be valid.
- If you leave the stadium for any reason, you will not be able to go back inside.
- Only buy tickets via <http://womensclfinal.nl/>. If you bought tickets via an unofficial sales channel, you may not be able to get into the stadium.
- If there is a problem with your ticket, you can report to the service desk at entrance 11.
- If you want to bring a bag into the stadium, it cannot be larger than A4 size (30 x 21 x 10 cm). All bags are subject to inspection. Bags, suitcases and other goods larger than A4 size are not allowed inside the stadium and will be rejected at the entrance. The stadium has a limited number of lockers where you can store larger sized bags. See the floor plan for the location of these lockers.

- Drinking alcohol (in cans or glass bottles) in the street is not allowed in Eindhoven, except on terraces. Beer is served in plastic cups.
- Drunk visitors will be denied access to or removed from the stadium.
- You are not allowed to carry or set off any fireworks in public or inside the stadium. The police will detain anyone who fails to comply with these instructions.
- See the icons in the image below for an overview of other banned/unwanted objects.
